

Nine Bay Area County Private Schools

Updated May 2017

Types of School:

Waldorf Schools

The less common model, with only about 150 schools in North America. Allow students to move beyond the desks and worksheets of today's mainstream classroom. Students may spend more time creating things like artwork. Waldorf schools don't teach academics until first grade. Attractive educational philosophy to many progressive parents.

Independent Schools

Governed by their own board. Some are secular, while others have a religious mission but are not part of or dependent on a specific church or temple.

Montessori Schools

Consists in a different approach to education, which provides connection with the child through independent activities and materials that appeal to the kids' senses. Mainly focused on early childhood education. Some may include elementary and even secondary grade levels.

Catholic Schools

Enroll 38 percent of all private school students nationwide, but not all families who choose Catholic Schools subscribe to the faith, therefore some students are non-Catholic.

Non-Catholic Religious Schools

All the other type of religious schools - Jewish, Lutheran, Quaker, conservative Christian, and others.

Marin County

There are 51 private schools and 73 public schools in Marin County, CA, serving more than 8,476 and 32,753 students respectively.

Student/ Teacher average ratio is 8:1 in private schools, and 20:1 in public schools. The average private school tuition is $16,736 for elementary schools and $32,966 for high schools.

27% of schools are religiously affiliated (most commonly Roman Catholic and Christian).
